ORDER:

Under the Madras Manure Dealers' Licensing Order 1949, a uniform licence fee of Rs.10/- per annum is now being levied irrespective of whether the licensee is an oil miller or dealer in manures or one engaged in manure mixing trade. The Joint Director of Agriculture has submitted proposals for the enhancement of the licence fees. He has classified the licencees into three groups - viz. (1) Oil Millers (ii) Dealers in Manures and (iii) Firms engaged in manure mixing trade, and has suggested different scales of fees for them. The Government have examined these proposals and have decided to increase the rates of fees.

His Excellency the Governor of Madras accordingly directs that the licences to be issued under the Madras Manure Delaers' Licensing Order 1949 should be classified as shown in column ~~specified~~ one of the statement below and licence fees charged as specified in column three thereof.
